Mr Smiles was a terrible politician—I hope I am more successful!

I learned that I already have lots of the skills needed to represent other people. I am confident and communicate well with others. It was a very interesting day.

Mr Smiles was really funny. The day was very enjoyable and interesting.

The show made me realise how important it is to present yourself in a way that makes others respect you.

The presentation was really interesting. I didn't know anything about politics before I met Mr Smiles.

The activity where we wrote down how people needed to be looked after by politicians made me realise how important it is to have good people in charge.
